

How do I know what access level I have in the Data Archive?

The access level (permissions) you have in each Collection (folder/file) in the Data Archive relates to the role you have been assigned in the projects RDMP and can be found by logging in to the ResData site. The ResData site will list all RDMPs and the roles you have for each.

For more information on Data Archive roles see the How can I share my data with other researchers?, How do I add / remove / update team member access in the Data Archive? FAQs and the RDMP and the Data Archive page.

Role	Description	Ingest (upload)	Egest (Download)	Search	Create namespace (subfolders)
Lead Chief Investigator (LCI)	One person per project who has full access to the Data Archive, usually a lead researcher	✓	✓	✓	✓
Research Project Manager (RPM)	Full access same as LCI. Usually is another researcher or member of the admin team	✓	✓	✓	✓
Contributor	Someone that has access to add data to the Data Archive but unable to create new folders	✓	✓	✓	✗
Reader	Someone that has read only access to the Data Archive and cannot add to the Data Archive	✗	✓	✓	✗

You may use the graph below to quickly determine the role you have when inside the Data Archive. Right click on the folder or file inside the Data Archive, Asset Finder to display your access level.
